DISADVANTAGES

1.Limited Room Inventory

The hotel has only 104 rooms functional. At time, the reservation has to deny guests due to limited inventory. Although there are 256 rooms, but the remaining are under renovation. The hotel has base category, superior rooms and suits. But the majority is under renovation. Due to low inventory, the hotel incurs a high fixed cost per room.

2.Very Far Stretched Renovation

Some part of the hotel has been under renovation for last couple of years. Initially, it was the lobby, then 34 rooms,2 restaurants and spa. Later 75 rooms underwent renovation. Currently, the remaining 152 rooms, banquets and a restaurants is now under renovation. The exterior beauty has also been spoilt because of the renovation. The renovation is taking place in two separate blocks which are not functional currently. Since some rooms are located near those blocks, if they are assigned to guests, they feel disturbed with negligible noise that comes. Apart from that, there is a lot of dust which enters into the guest area. The housekeeping has to be on toes to keep it neat.

3.Limited Superior Category & Twin Bed Rooms

As already mentioned, the hotel is under renovation. The number of superior Category and twin bed room is limited in the hotel.

4.Located Away From The City & Tourist Attractions

The hotel targets business travelers and not much of leisure travelers prefer Radisson Blu Hotel Delhi. The reason behind it is that the hotel is located very close to the Corporate Hub, Gurgaon. It is also not also very far from to central part of Delhi. As compared, it is not very closely located to the places of tourist attraction.
